

I would request the FCC not to mandate the inclusion of digital bit which prevents me from time shifting and watching the up and coming digital broadcast. As again, it seems like this agency just caters to the interest of the big hollywood moghuls rather than the average consumer and their legitimate need to record and watch tv broadcasts. I have no intentions of saving TV broadcasts and sharing it all over the Internet as the hollywood types would like to portray this issue.